

Country	Italy
Name of the Partner (Acronym)	ANFE
Full legal name in original language	ASSOCIAZIONE NAZIONALE FAMIGLIE EMIGRATI
Legal form	NO PROFIT ASSOCIATION
Contact person responsible for CAPTIVE: Name Postal address Mail address Tel / Fax	Giuseppe Pilocane gpilocane@tiscali.it +39 3333088003 +39 3336141050
Profile of the partner Objectives and regular activities	ANFE is a National Association based in Rome organized with 48 foreign representatives, covering 16 countries. In Italy the body is made up of 44 provincial and 16 regional structures. ANFE is registered for the Register of Institutions and Associations performing activities in favor of immigrants (Ministry of Labour and Social Policies);General Directorate of Immigration; UNAR Registry, the Registry of associations and to support the fight against the discrimination (Presidency of the Council of Ministers - Department for Equal Opportunities). ANFE is one of the founders of the National Emigration Council (CNE). It's member of the General Council of the Union International des Organismes familiaux, of Comites and of the General Council of Italians Abroad (CGIE). It participates actively in the tables of the Territorial Councils for Immigration and It's also part of the Institute for International Economic Cooperation and the Problems of Development. One of the main activities of A.N.F.E. in the world is developing new inclusion policies in order to promote the social integration of migrant communities in the hosting countries. For that reason in the last few years ANFE, answering to the social inclusion needs of the new migration flows come from Africa and Arabic Countries, has organized language and culture courses for migrants and refugees.
Experiences of similar actions in relation to role in the implementation of the proposed action	A.N.F.E. has produced and supported several projects for the dissemination of Italian culture abroad and to promote an integration of migrant communities : Palermo, 2008. Conference in collaboration with the International Red Cross on the problems of migrants and immigrants, to give greater emphasis to the problems of migrants and immigrants in particular in the area of the Mediterranean basin.

Memories of the Future - Palermo, 2008. International conference on associations revival in migration policies. Migrations: from reception and integration- Palermo, 1998. Conference on emigration and immigration and policies for the reception and integration of non-EU, in collaboration with the Fondazione Migrantes. ANFE Since 2007 is part of the Steering Committee in Salina in which, consistent with the mission of restoring dignity to migration, every year, organizes a round table on the theme of migration(2007 Gender and migration in the Mediterranean - Salina Doc Fest - International Festival of the narrative documentary)

Moreover ANFE has a long experience in project co-financed by National and European funds focus on migration issue: 2003 Elis "project approved by the regional government. It was realized an incubator Impresa donna in Malta, aims to promote the cultural and social development of the woman with his direct participation in order to make active local development subject. Terram EFS 2006-2006 PIT ALCINOO- MES 3.12 promotion of women participation in the labour market and spreading the culture of gender equality in business sector. TNCs 2009-2011 Comparative research about the integration and social inclusion of migrant come from third national countries regular resident in European countries: Malta, Italy, Cipro, Belgium and UK.

It has a long career within the educational, vocational training and LLL, especially in Sicily where through a staff of experts has realized training for professionals, continuous training, educational and vocational training courses, career counseling and job services for disadvantage people such as unemployed, migrants, women, people with disabilities, minors a risk of no school attendance, drug addict and prisoners.

ANFE has developed over the years a lot of educational and training initiatives within the nature of prison, therapeutics community and recovery in order to ensure to persons in detention new social integration processes through the development of new knowledge and awareness and the redefinition of their social and professional identity. This competence together with the collaboration of the local Penal Institutes such as the Ucciardone in Palermo and the Penitentiary in Castelvetrano will match the needs of the project. Since 2002 ANFE has developed vocational training activities for prisoners inside many Sicilian Penitentiaries such as the prison in Agrigento, Enna, Piazza Armerina, Nicosia, Gazzi, Catania, Giarre, Trapani, Castelvetrano and the forensic psychiatric hospital in Barcelona Pozzo di Gozzo. Moreover in 2010 with the three years project In&Out has realized a vocational guidance and training activities inside the Penitentiary for the penal institute for minor in Palermo, Catania, Acireale and Caltanissetta. This has meant that ANFE could improve and extend its know how in educational and

	vocational training in prison and its network with the Sicilian Penal Institutes.
History of cooperation with University of Malta as coordinating organization	The partnership between ANFE and the University of Malta has started since 2006 with the Project “Terram” - EFS 2006-2006 PIT ALCINOO- to support the Social inclusion of immigrated Women in Sicily. The cooperation has continued for years thanks to the implementation of many projects within the LLP(life learning program) and Justice/Dafne European Programs.
Contribution of the partner to CAPTIVE	A.N.F.E. Associazione Nazionale Famiglie Emigrati (IT)(PR1) - leading WS2 & WS4 Ws2 Learning activities - 3 Months. In each partner country, two workshops about the following topics will take place: · S/GBV and the promotion of equality; · S/GBV: law and cultures · S/GBV: De-victimization and reparative systems . A gender sensitive survival approach will be adopted A minimum of 10 professionals and service providers per country will take part in these workshops. Such professionals will be staff providing specialized victim support and who are first points of contact for victims of violence (police, probation officers, lawyers etc.) in order to enhance the knowledge of S/GBV and to strengthen programs combating gender-based violence among migrants. The workshops will be divided in two parts: Part 1 - presentation of the main topic of the meeting, the state of the art and possible systems of support forS/GBV victims Part 2 - active participation to propose possible social policies, empowerment strategies to support migrant victims of S/GBV and to develop new networks Story Telling Activity - In Germany, Italy and Malta, three days of Storytelling Activities. The first level of engagement focuses on experiential learning. The activities will aimed at creating an environment where people can explore their perceptions about S/GBV, related issue and better understand the challenges posed by the violence they go through. Selected stories will be shared as a dialogue tool for advocating against harmful

attitudes and practices that affect women negatively. The most important objective is for the target group to attend as participants and the expected result would be the creation of a video. Training activity – 3 Months (MTS 11-13) (Objectives 2&4) The training activity starts from this common point and it will provide two training courses: A. “Ethno-cultural Agent” Course (150 Hours) aimed at a group of migrant women, victims or potential victims of violence, (maximum 5 people in each country) identified through the migrant communities. This target group will be involved in the building of Awareness of All partners Applicant Partner 1 and Partner 5 All partners

3 S/GBV as a crime and of its relation with the social and cultural aspect of the community. The course will address: cases of gender violence; cultural codification of gender violence; the European/national law against the crime of S/GBV; empowerment of victims and resilience and coping strategies. Secondly, participants will be involved in an interactive activity, conducted by an expert and an intercultural mediator. They will operate through the methodology of the storytelling or digital storytelling. At the end participants could work either with the courts or in systems that support victims of S/GBV as ethno-cultural agents. B. S/GBV and support strategies for migrant women” – A Course for professionals (30 hours) addressed to 20 professionals and service providers selected by the partnership amongst service providers. The course will be delivered using Videoconference technologies and. The course will offer new knowledge about: · S/GBV and the effects of S/GBV; Adopting a gender-sensitive approach; Survivor-centred approach and survivor’s need; Resilience and coping strategies for victims or potential victims of violence. · Intercultural Communication and cultural competences Information and Prevention activity – 2Months (MTS 14-15)(Objectives 3&5) Three half day Information and Prevention sessions will be addressed to professionals or migrant community (max 25 people per session) in order to promote gender

	equality. Sessions will introduce themes such as: equality; S/GBV crimes in national law and Gender violence in close relationship etc. and working with recipients using the video realized in the previous activities to
Staff involved in CAPTIVE	Giuseppe Pilocane - Project manager for Italy Anna Robino – Researcher and sociologist Floriana Vita – Researcher and cultural mediator Vita Giammarinaro - Administration Manager
Other, when linked to CAPTIVE	