Part 2

Introduction of the French context with regard to CAPTIVE

RIGHTS, EQUALITY and CITIZENSHIP programme – DAPHNE Strand

CAPTIVE Project

As a partner of actions and activities carried out for minors under judicial protection, we have contacts with mental health and emergency services.

After working with the University of Malta on education systems for female prisoners, we thought we could bring our networking skills to the CAPTIVE project.

CAPTIVE Project

Before the present kick-off we had prior contacts with local organizations (as associated partners) directly invested in helping and supporting refugee women:

- MANA (NGO)
- PAS (local medical service at public hospital)
- AMI (NGO)
- ...
- Public services of access rights and asylum (Prefecture)

What are their 1st comments?

- 1- Lack of coordination in terms of both Women's rights and Migrants' rights
- 2- Need for stakeholder networking
- 3- Lack of specific accommodation
- 4- Institutional violence should to be added to physical and mental violence (including matrimonial violence, perinatal violence,...)
